PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT, BENGAL.

DISTRICT ROAD FUND.

Notification, dated 30th August 1918.—The subjoined abstract of the annual report and accounts of the District Road Committee of the Darjeeling district for the year 1917-18, together with the remarks of the Commissioner of the Rajshahi Division thereon, is published for general information.

C. P. WALSH,
Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.

Extract from letter No. 331P.W., dated the 15th July 1918, from H. F. SAMMAN, ESQ., I.C.S., Commissioner of the Rajshahi Division, to the Secretary to the Government of Bengal, Public Works Department.

* * * * * * *

2. The income of the fund was not fully utilized during the year; but as the appointment of a District Engineer has now been sanctioned, it is hoped that the large closing balance will now be gradually reduced.

Abstract of the Report by the Chairman, District Road Committee of Darjeeling, on the operations of the District Road Fund of the district for the year 1917-18.

[Vide letter No. 90R.F., dated the 1st July 1918, from J. A. L. Swan, Esq., I.C.S., Chairman of the District Road Committee, Darjeeling, to the Commissioner of the Rajshahi Division.]

1. Working of the Committee.—

(a) District Road Committee.—The total number of members of this Committee is 18—6 official and 12 non-official. Seven meetings were held during the year. The average attendance was 9·7 or 53·8 per cent. per meeting.

(b) Kurseong Branch Road Committee.—There are 9 members of this Branch Committee—3 official and 6 non-official. Four meetings were held during the year, the average attendance being 4·5 or 50 per cent. per meeting.

(c) Terai Branch Road Committee.—There are 17 members of this Branch Committee—3 Official and 14 Non-Official. Eight meetings were held during the year. The average attendance being 8·87 or 52·17 per cent. per meeting.

2. The year opened with a cash balance of Rs. 56,486-0-4 and outstanding advances of Rs. 4,389-9-1, making a total of Rs. 60,875-9-5. This amount, together with Rs. 73,507-9-8, received during the year, made a total of Rs. 1,34,383-3-1 available for expenditure during the year. The actual expenditure during the year was Rs. 52,685-2-7, excluding unadjusted advances of Rs. 8,123-11-3. The actual cash balance on the 31st March 1918 was Rs. 73,574-5-3.

3. The closing balance of Rs. 73,574-5-3, excluding outstanding advances of Rs. 8,123-11-3, exceeds the amount allowed under the rules. A portion of it was, however, expended during the year, though no accounts were received, and the balance will be considerably reduced when the District Engineer and his staff are appointed.

Receipts.

4. Provincial Rates.—The road cess was levied by the Committee at the maximum rate of six pies in the rupee.

Rupees 56,624-8 was collected under the head "Cess on lands" during the year, against Rs. 53,315-6-2 in the preceding year. The increase is due to revaluation.

5. Miscellaneous.—A sum of Rs. 4 was credited under this head on account of sale proceeds of certain old materials of a bridge.

6. Contribution.—

(a) Grant from Government.—Rupees 6,931 and Rs. 2,733-14-11 were credited under this head on account of (i) Augmentation of resources of the Committee and (ii) one-half per cent. collection on Government estates, as against Rs. 3,310 and Rs. 3,370-0-7, respectively, in the preceding year. There was thus an increase of Rs. 3,621 in the augmentation grant, the decrease in the second part being atributable to a falling off in collections from Government estates.

(b) Contribution from Darjeeling Improvement Fund.—Rupees 7,194-2-9 was received as contribution for communications and as share of the cost of the joint cess and tauzi establishment, against Rs 7,183 in the preceding year.

(c) Contribution from private persons and other sources.—A sum of Rs. 20 was received from the Darjeeling Municipality on account of contribution for collection by the cess and tauzi establishment of the rent of the locations from Municipality.

Expenditure.

7. Original Works.—Out of an estimated expenditure of Rs. 3,602, a sum of Rs. 391-2-9 was accounted for during the year under this head, against Rs. 13,516-2-3 in the preceding year for the extension of certain spans of the Muni bridge on Road No. 41 (Bagdogra to Ghugu Jhora). The decrease is due to the fact that only urgent works were taken up, which could not be postponed till the appointment of a District Engineer.

8. Repairs.—A total sum of Rs. 28,515-11-2 as per details below was spent under this head for repairs to roads and bridges, as against Rs. 30,963-0-9 in the preceding year. The decrease is mainly due to the non-receipt of accounts for certain repairs actually done during the year.

9. The total length of 9 miles of metalled roads and 376 miles, out of 398 miles, of unmetalled roads, and 2 miles out of 11 miles of village roads, were actually repaired during the year at a cost of Rs. 1,182 or 131·3 per mile, Rs. 27,673 or 73·5 per mile, and Rs. 53 or 26·5 per mile, respectively. These figures include Rs. 1,334 spent for maintenance of certain important bridges on these roads mainly in charge of the Public Works Department.

10. Sign-Boards.—Rupees 242-8 only was spent for sign-boards during the year.

11. Public Works Establishment.—The appointment of a District Engineer and staff was not sanctioned during the year of report. Practically all the work was, as usual, done by the members of the Committees and by managers of the tea gardens and other private gentlemen. The more important Road Cess bridges were repaired by the Public Works Department as before at the cost of the Road Fund. A sum of Rs. 1,103-14-6 including contingencies, etc., or 3·78 per cent. of the total outlay of Rs. 29,149 on works, was spent on the entertainment of an overseer at Rs. 50 plus a fixed travelling allowance of Rs. 27-8 and a peon at Rs. 8 per mensem, both under the Terai Branch Road Committee.

12. Contribution to Darjeeling Improvement Fund.—A sum of Rs. 8,195 was contributed towards medical aid and water-supply out of the Public Works cess surrendered by Government.

13. Loans.—A sum of Rs. 6,429-9-10 as principal and Rs. 881-7-10 as interest was paid in the year under the terms of the loans granted by Government in 1900-1901 for reconstruction and repairs of bridges destroyed and damaged by the cyclone of September 1899. No fresh loan was taken during the year.

14. Administration.—There are two Branch Road Committees, viz., Kurseong and Terai, under the District Road Committee. Messrs. J. T. Rankin, I.C.S., L. Burrows and J. A. L. Swan, I.C.S., Deputy Commissioners of the district, were the ex-officio Chairmen of the District Road Committee and of the Terai Branch Committee from 1st April to 27th August 1917, 28th August to 7th October 1917, and 8th October to 31st March 1918, respectively. Mr. L. Burrows, the senior Deputy Collector of Darjeeling, was the Vice-Chairman of the District Road Committee throughout the year, except for the period from 28th August to 7th October 1917, when he was Officiating Deputy Commissioner and Chairman of District Road Committee. Messrs. H. G. Blomfield, I.C.S., and H. Quinton, I.C.S., the successive Subdivisional Officers of Kurseong, were ex-officio Chairmen of the Kurseong Branch Road Committee from 1st April to 19th October 1917 and from 20th October 1917 to 31st March 1918, respectively. The late Dr. R. V. Dixon, Civil Medical Officer of Kurseong, was ex-officio Vice-Chairman of the Kurseong Branch Road Committee throughout the year.

The Subdivisional Officer of Kurseong was ex-officio Vice-Chairman of the Terai Branch Road Committee from 1st April to 5th August 1917, and Mr. H. L. Fell, Subdivisional officer, Siliguri, was the Vice-Chairman for the remainder of the year. The office of the Terai Branch Committee was removed on the 6th August 1917 from Kurseong to Siliguri in the interests of the Committee.

15. Audit of Accounts.—The Examiner of Local Accounts, Bengal, has audited the accounts up to February 1917, and the members of the Audit Sub-Committee have audited them for the whole year of 1917-18.

Some of the special features of the Fund are—(1) that widowed daughters incapable of remarriage or children labouring under such mental or bodily infirmities as incapacitate them from earning their livelihood or preclude the possibility of marriage (in case of a daughter) are admitted to its benefits; and (2) that subscribers to the Widows' and Daughters' branches are entitled to a refund of 30 per cent. of the premia paid, should the nominees predecease them after five years of admission. The Fund is now of ten years' standing and has a balance of over three and-a-half lakhs with Government on four per cent. interest. For forms of applications and rules of the Fund apply to the Comptroller, India Treasuries, Imperial Secretariat Buildings, Calcutta.

NOTIFICATION.

WHEREAS, owing to the further heavy loss of traffic due to the War, it appears to the Commissioners for the Port of Chittagong and to the Governor in Council of the Presidency of Fort William in Bengal, that the ordinary revenue of the Trust will be insufficient to meet the working expenses and that it is therefore necessary to resort temporarily to further special measures of additional taxation on goods and shipping.

Now therefore, it is notified, for general information, under section 58 of the Chittagong Port Act, 1914 (Bengal Act V of 1914), as amended by the Bengal Act V of 1918, that the said Commissioners propose, with the previous sanction of the Governor in Council, to levy, as a temporary measure, with effect from the 1st December 1918, a temporary sur-tax of twelve annas per ton in addition to the river dues at present levied on all goods landed from, or shipped into, any sea-going vessel lying or being within the limits of the said Port (except bunker coal on which a temporary sur-tax of four annas per ton will be levied), whether such goods shall or shall not be landed or shipped at any wharf, quay, stage, jetty or pier belonging to the Commissioners.

This draft Notification will be taken into consideration on the 15th November 1918, and any objections or suggestions which are received by the Commissioners with respect thereto, before that date, will be duly considered.

GOVERNMENT OF BENGAL.

BENGAL LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL.

NOTIFICATION.

No. 932L., dated the 8th July, 1918.—The following Bill was introduced in the Bengal Legislative Council on the 3rd July, 1918, and is hereby published for information, together with the Statement of Objects and Reasons annexed thereto :—

A

BILL

further to amend the Bengal Tenancy Act, 1885.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Bengal Tenancy Act, 1885, in the manner hereinafter appearing; VIII of 1885.

And whereas the previous sanction of the Governor General has been obtained under section 79, sub-section (2), of the Government of India Act, 1915, to the passing of this Act; 5 & 6 Geo. 5, c. 61.

It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title.

1. This Act may be called the Bengal Tenancy (Amendment No. 2) Act, 1918.

Amendment of section 74 of Act VIII of 1885

2. Section 74 of the Bengal Tenancy Act, 1885 (hereinafter called the said Act), shall be renumbered as sub-section (1) of section 74, and after the said sub-section the following shall be added, namely:— VIII of 1885.

"(2) All impositions upon tenants of road cess or public works cess, or of both,—

(a) in excess of the net amount prescribed by section 41 of the Cess Act, 1880, or Ben. Act IX of 1880

(b) on any scale in excess of that prescribed by clause (3) of that section, levied in addition to the actual rent, shall be illegal, and all stipulations and reservations for payment of any such excess contained in any contract made between a landlord and a tenant on or after the 13th day of October, 1880, shall be void:

Provided that, subject to the provisions of section 72 of the Indian Contract Act, 1872, no suit shall lie for the recovery of anything paid before the commencement of the Bengal Tenancy (Amendment No. 2) Act, 1918, on account of the impositions referred to in sub-section (2)." IX of 1872.

Amendment of section 75

3. In section 75 of the said Act,—

(1) after the words "in excess of the rent" the words "or road cess or public works cess" shall be inserted; and

(2) after the words "lawfully payable, may" the following shall be inserted, namely:—

"subject to the proviso to sub-section (2) of section 74."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

UNDER the provisions of section 41 of the Cess Act, 1880 (Bengal Act IX of 1880), the amount payable on account of road and public works cesses by a cultivating raiyat to the person to whom his rent is payable is one-half of the full rate. When the Cess Act was first introduced in 1871, Government took the exceptional precaution of issuing a proclamation pointing out how the payments of raiyats were to be calculated, and informing them of their liabilities and rights. In 1885 it was brought to the notice of Government that it was a common practice of zamindars to recover from their raiyats the full amount of the road cess and public works cess payable to Government in respect of their estates. A notification was again published for the information of all persons concerned that the amount payable with his rent on account of road and public works cesses by any cultivating raiyat is only one-half of the full rate of such cesses. In I. L. R. 33 Cal. 683 it has been held that cess does not come within the definition of an abwab contained in section 74 of the Bengal Tenancy Act, 1885 (VIII of 1885), as it is not an imposition on the tenant by the landlord in addition to the rent but a tax imposed by Government, and that therefore a contract to pay more than the proportion payable by the tenant under section 41 of the Cess Act is not illegal. Recent inquiries have disclosed the fact that the limits laid down in section 41 of the Cess Act are being ignored on the authority of the High Court's rulings. On grounds of public policy it is desired to amend the law so as to bring it into consonance with the intention of the framers of the Cess Act, 1880.

2. The object in view is sought to be attained by an amendment of section 74 of the Bengal Tenancy Act, providing that all impositions upon tenants, of road and public works cesses, in excess of the limits prescribed by section 41 of the Cess Act, 1880, in addition to the actual rent, shall be illegal, and that all contracts to pay more than the prescribed proportion made later than the 13th October, 1880, the date on which the Cess Act came into force, shall be void. Consequential amendments have also been made in section 75 of the Bengal Tenancy Act, 1885.

3. The proposed amendment will not affect contracts entered into by the holders of permanent mukarari leases, who will still be subject to the provisions of section 179 of the Bengal Tenancy Act.

4. Provision has been made that no suit shall lie for the recovery by tenants from their landlords of cess paid before the date on which the Bengal Tenancy Act will be amended.

GOVERNMENT OF BENGAL.

BENGAL LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL.

NOTIFICATION.

No. 1058 L., dated Calcutta, the 6th August, 1918.—His Excellency the Governor having been pleased to order, under rule 31(1) of the Bengal Legislative Rules, 1912, the publication of the following Bill, together with the Statement of Objects and Reasons which accompanies it, in the Calcutta Gazette, the Bill and the Statement of Objects and Reasons are accordingly hereby published for general information It is proposed to introduce and consider and to pass the Bill at the meeting of the Bengal Legislative Council to be held on the 19th instant :—

THE CHITTAGONG PORT (AMENDMENT) BILL, 1918.

A

to amend the Chittagong Port Act, 1914. (Ben. Act V of 1914.)

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Chittagong Port Act, 1914, in the manner hereinafter appearing ;

It is hereby enacted as follows :—

Short title.

1. This Act may be called the Chittagong Port (Amendment) Act, 1918.

Amendment of section 58 of Bengal Act V of 1914.

2. In section 58 of the Chittagong Port Act, 1914,— (Ben. Act V of 1914.)

(1) sub-section (2), and

(2) in sub-section (3), the words, figure and brackets "Subject to the limits enacted by sub-section (2)", shall be omitted.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

THE object of this Bill is to improve the financial position of the Port of Chittagong, which is very unsatisfactory. Under section 58 of the Chittagong Port Act, 1914 (Ben. Act V of 1914) the river due imposed on goods landed from, and shipped into, sea-going vessels is limited to the statutory maximum of four annas per ton. There is no such maximum limit in the Port of Calcutta—see section 108 of the Calcutta Port Act, 1890 (Ben. Act III of 1890). The intention of the Bill is to remove this limitation, thus enabling the Commissioners of the Port of Chittagong to assimilate, so far as possible, the schedules of their charges to those in force in the Port of Calcutta.

Clause 2(b).—A reference to other towns and local areas to which the Act may be extended has been inserted in order to put such towns or local areas on the same footing as Calcutta when it is desired to exclude or include any local area in the vicinity of such towns or local areas.

Clause 4 (3).—The portion from "and includes" to the end of this sub-clause has been struck out as we do not consider it advisable that the functions of the Commissioner of Police under the Act should be delegated.

Clause 4 (4).—This sub-clause has been struck out as being unnecessary as there are now only a few references to the Corporation.

Clauses 5 and 8.—We have omitted clause 8 and have revised clause 5 so as to enable the Commissioner of Police to fix the time when hackney-carriages should be registered, as it is not possible to register all hackney-carriages at the same time. Amendments in this respect have also been made in clauses 10 (2), 26 (2), 34 (2) and (3) and 62 (2).

Clause 6.—We consider that the control of hackney-carriages should be transferred from the Corporation to the Commissioner of Police in Calcutta, and alterations have been made in this clause and in clauses 4(3), 7, 17(2), 30(2), 60, 79 and 81 with a view to give effect to this transfer.

Clause 7.—We consider that the functions of the Registering Officer should not be delegated to any police-officer below the rank of sergeant, and we also consider that the functions of the Registering Officer conferred by clauses 9, 10, 13, 25, 26, 31, 33 and 61 should be retained by the Registering Officer.

Clause 9(2).—It seems to us desirable to include in this sub-clause a provision to the effect that the Registering Officer shall satisfy himself that the municipal tax in respect of the carriage has been duly paid for the half-year before he registers the carriage.

Clause 10(1).—It seems to us to be necessary to make it clear in this sub-clause that the license shall only be delivered upon payment of the registration fee leviable under a by-law made under clause 71 of the Bill. A similar alteration has been made in clause 26(1).

Clause 12.—We have re-drafted sub-clause (1) to include in it a provision for service of a notice in writing upon owners of hackney-carriages to produce them for inspection at such time as the Registering Officer may appoint.

Similar alterations have been made in clause 28.

Clause 13.—We do not consider it equitable that the driver's license should be cancelled if the carriage is unfit for public use. We have therefore struck out the reference to the driver in this clause. We have made similar alterations in clauses 23, 31 and 42.

Clause 14.—We have added two sub-clauses to this clause in order to make it necessary for the registered owner of a hackney-carriage to give notice of the transfer of his carriage, or of the discontinuance of the use of the carriage as a hackney-carriage.

Clause 17, sub-clause (2).—We consider it desirable to insert a second proviso to enable the carriage to be released on the owner furnishing security for its production.

Sub-clause (3).—We consider that a carriage seized under clause 17(2) may, if necessary, be detained at the Registration office.

Sub-clause (4).—We have extended the period of 10 days to 15 days. We have also inserted a provision for previous advertisement of the auction.

Sub-clause (5).—We have extended the period from 20 days to one month.

Similar alterations have been made in clause 30.

Clause 21.—We have inserted the word "wilfully" before the word "neglects" in order to make intention the essence of the offence. Clauses 40 and 41 have been similarly altered.

Clause 22 (2).—We have extended the period of non-delivery from three days to seven days. A similar alteration has also been made in clause 41(2).

Clause 23.—We have omitted the reference to the driver's license as a consequential amendment following the alteration made in clause 13. We consider that it should be compulsory for the Registering Officer to take possession of the plate in the circumstances and we have therefore substituted "shall" for "may". Similar alterations have been made in clause 42.

Clause 25.—We have inserted the words "or intended to be used" in this clause to enable an owner to have the horses registered, even though there is no carriage to be registered along with them.

Clause 26.—For the reasons noted against clause 10 we have revised sub-clause (1) of this clause.

Clause 28.—For the reasons noted against clause 12 we have revised sub-clause (1) of this clause. We have also added a proviso to sub-clause (2) giving the owner an opportunity before prosecution to explain the non-production of his horse.

Clause 30.—We have revised this clause on the same lines as clause 17.

Clause 31.—For the reasons given against clause 13 we have omitted the reference to the driver's license.

Clause 34 A.—This new clause provides for notice to be given of a change of a driver's residence. It is considered desirable that the Registering Officer should know where the drivers actually reside.

Clauses 40 and 41.—The alterations made in these clauses are made for the same reasons as those given against clauses 21 and 22.

Clause 42.—We have revised this clause on the same lines as clause 23.

Clause 45.—We have added a provision requiring the Magistrate to inform the Registering Officer of every endorsement which he makes on the driver's license under this clause.

Clause 47 (2) (c).—We have struck out this alternative provision as being unnecessary. The reference to this provision in the proviso to clause 47 (2) has also been omitted as a consequential amendment.

Clause 49 (2).—We have substituted five miles for four miles as the rate of speed for a hackney-carriage hired by time.

Clause 51.—We have inserted sub-clause (q) in order to prevent carriages being left unattended in streets or public places. Sub-clause (r) is designed to put a stop to the growing evil of the use of hackney-carriages for immoral purposes.

Clause 53.—The words "or attendant" have been inserted after the word "driver" wherever it occurs in this clause, so as to extend the scope of the clause to an attendant.

Clause 57 (1).—We have recast this sub-clause making it optional for the hirer to drive to the nearest Magistrate or to the Registering Officer.

Clause 59 (2).—The words "Local Government" have been substituted for the word "Corporation", as we recommend that the by-laws under clause 71 should be made by the Local Government.

Clause 60 (1).—We consider that in view of the transfer of hackney-carriages to the Commissioner of Police, the Commissioner of Police should be consulted before the Corporation builds public stands under this clause.

Clause 63 (1) (b).—We consider it desirable to include in the particulars of the register of licenses the place where the palanquin is to be kept.

Clause 67 (3).—We have altered the license fee of palanquin bearers from eight annas to four annas. We consider eight annas too much in the case of palanquin bearers.

Clause 71.—Now that the control of hackney-carriages is to be transferred to the police it is advisable that by-laws under the Act should be made by the Local Government.

Sub-clause (jj).—We consider that this new provision is necessary in order to protect hackney-carriage horses from cruel or inhumane treatment.

Sub-clause (l).—We have revised this sub-clause in order that the placing of advertisements on hackney-carriages, etc., may be permitted under certain conditions.

Clause 75 (1).—We have reduced the period within which prosecutions may be instituted from three months to one month, as is the case in Madras, as we consider that offences under this Act should be prosecuted with as little delay as possible.

Clause 76.—We have extended the scope of this clause to include all property, instead of merely that of the Corporation, as it seems right that all property should be treated alike in this respect.

Clause 77 (1).—We have substituted the words "officer in charge" for the words "Inspector or other officer on duty."

Clause 77 (3).—This sub-clause has been added as it is more convenient for people to make inquiries from the Registering Officer concerning any article left in a public conveyance.

Clause 79 A.—This new clause is based on section 127 of the Public Health Act, 1875 (38 & 39 Vict., c. 55) and section 11 of the Infectious Diseases (Prevention) Act, 1890 (53 & 54 Vict., c. 34) and provides for the disinfection of a hackney-carriage or palanquin engaged to convey a patient suffering from any dangerous infectious disorder or a corpse. We consider that a clause like this is very necessary in this Bill.

Clause 79 B.—We consider it necessary to provide in the Bill that the driver of a hackney-carriage or the bearer of a palanquin should not be arrested nor the carriage or palanquin seized when it is actually used for the conveyance of a passenger until some arrangement is made for the passenger to proceed to his destination, and we have suggested two methods by which this may be effected.

Clause 80 (1).—This sub-clause has been revised on the lines of section 22 of Burma Act IV of 1917.

Clause 81.—We consider that the "Commissioner of Police" should be included in this indemnity clause.

Clause 82.—Some necessary alterations have been made in this clause. A reference to clause 80 has been included in sub-clause (2) in order to provide for the disposal of fees and fines in areas outside Calcutta.

Clause 82A.—This new clause supplies a defect in the existing Act. It provides that a hackney-carriage registered in any town or area outside Calcutta can ply for hire within a radius of six miles from the place where it is registered. This will enable such carriages to ply in adjacent places without being registered in those places.

We recommend that the Bill, as thus amended, be passed.

CALCUTTA:
The 23rd August, 1918.

*[This member signed subject to the following note :—

"I agree generally though I voted against the transfer of the control to the Police Commissioner."]

†(This member signed subject to his Note of Dissent appended.)

NOTE OF DISSENT BY THE HON'BLE RAI RADHA CHARAN PAL BAHADUR.

IT is nearly 54 years ago since the first legislation on the subject was undertaken. The objects of that measure were "to restrain the extortion of native livery-stable keepers, to provide a regulated scale of fares and otherwise to place the relations of the carriage-hiring community and the owners and drivers of gharries on a satisfactory footing". It became law as Bengal Act I of 1864. An amending Act was introduced for the more efficient control over drivers, and it became law as Bengal Act V of 1866. This Act continued till 1878. From 1864 to 1878 the Registering Officer was under the control of the Commissioner of Police. In 1878 an amending measure was introduced by the Hon'ble Mr. Reynolds which became Bengal Act IV of 1878, and it authorized the Local Government to place the Registering Officer under the control and supervision of the Corporation, and since 1878 the Registering Officer and the administration of the Hackney-carriage Act have been placed under the Corporation of Calcutta. The history of the administration of the hackney-carriage department under the Corporation is a steady and continuous development, progress and improvement of hackney-carriages in Calcutta. The Corporation had its standing hackney-carriage committee which worked with unremitting zeal and energy for the improvement of the hackney-carriage service and this has been acknowledged by Government. When the department has been for over 40 years under the Corporation which has done so much to improve the service, I hope the Legislature will be very chary to take away the administration of this department from a popular body and place it in the hands of a single person, however exalted his position and authority may be. The Corporation proposed in 1910 an amendment of the Hackney-carriage Act of 1891, in order to further improve the service. An amending Bill was introduced in 1916, but as the Select Committee materially changed it, the Bill was withdrawn, re-drafted and re-introduced this year. If the original Bill had been sent up to the Council the question of transfer of the Hackney-carriage Department to the Police would not have arisen. The Bill of 1918 was sent to the Corporation when the Chairman advocated the transfer of the hackney-carriage to the Police, for he started the idea "that the hackney-carriage should be under the Police and the fire-brigade under the Corporation as was the ordinary system in other countries". He asked "as a quid pro quo that the control of the fire-brigade should be transferred from the Police to the Corporation". There was divergence of opinion amongst the members of the Corporation. Mr. Phelps stated that the hackney-carriage service had attained a certain amount of efficiency after many years and the Police had a lot of important things to do and he, therefore, failed to see what advantage would accrue from the transfer. The Hon'ble Raja Hrishikesh Laha, representing an important section of the community, thought that the public would not like the transfer because they would not be able to approach the Police so easily as the Corporation. He emphasized that the public would surely oppose the proposal. The Chairman, Mr. Payne, admitted that there had been substantial improvement in the hackney-carriage service, but he thought it would be a quid pro quo to get the fire-brigade in exchange. In my opinion, it is the idea of getting in hand the fire-brigade department that dominated the proposal. The Corporation, on the advice of Mr. Payne, by a very bare majority (it would not be far wrong to assume by the Chairman's casting vote) resolved "that the control of the hackney-carriages should be transferred to the Police and that the control of the fire-brigade should at the same time be transferred to the Corporation". But, as stated by the Hon'ble Member in charge of the Bill, the fire-brigade will not be made over in exchange to the Corporation, and, therefore, it must be assumed that the Corporation is not prepared to part with the hackney-carriage department. It has been urged by two European Associations that the hackney-carriages should be transferred to the Police, as, in their opinion, all vehicles should be under their control. May I ask what about the carts? The cart registration is in the hands of the Corporation and I believe it will be admitted that the bullock cart owners and drivers are more difficult to be dealt with than the owners and drivers of hackney-carriages. The present Commissioner of Police asked for the transfer of the hackney-carriage department. His predecessors, during the last 40 years, did not ask for it, and the ground, so far as I understand, urged by Mr. Clarke is the difficulty in serving summonses on hackney-carriage drivers. I do not understand why, now that under the present Bill the addresses and changes of addresses of drivers must be notified to the Registering Officer, what particular difficulty will arise in serving the summons. If there is any difficulty surely the same must appear in the case of bullock carts. I do not know whether the next stage will be to take away cart registration from the Corporation.

Much is said about the efficient supervision of the Police. I do not cast any reflection upon them, but as it may imply relative inefficiency of the Corporation in the matter of the administration of the hackney-carriage department, I should like to quote here what a European Commissioner, representing the Trades Association, observed :—

"Mr. Shelton said that the control exercised over the taxi-cabs in Calcutta was not as it should be. There was no classification of the taxi-cabs, no uniformity in the dress of the drivers, and no inspection of fittings or machinery. He, therefore, suggested that the taxi-cabs should be brought under the control of the Corporation." Further, "Mr. Shelton said that, when this question of controlling the taxi-cabs in Calcutta was discussed previously it was thought that under the Police they would be more efficiently managed; but it proved otherwise. As they had a well-organized department in the Corporation, namely, the hackney-carriage department, he thought they could very efficiently deal with the taxi-cabs. These vehicles were generally in a dirty condition and, therefore, stricter supervision was necessary."

I can confidently state that the public opinion, particularly the Indian section of the community, are opposed to the transfer. Both the British Indian Association (I assume from Raja Hrishikesh Laha's observations) and the Indian Association are strongly opposed to it.

I do not wish to add any observation of mine. As regards the transference of the department to the Police it will not centralize the control in one place, for there is the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals who will deal with the gharrywallahs quite independently of the Police. Next, the Corporation will shortly have a Civil Veterinary Department and all horses and other animals in the city must pass through its hands. The complete control of all animals in Calcutta, inclusive of the S. P. C. A. agency, and the administration of the Glanders and Farcy Act will be transferred to the Corporation. As soon as the war is over and funds are available, the Corporation will organize this department.

Another point is that an appeal against the order of the Registering Officer lies with the Commissioner of Police. Here again I oppose the one-man rule. A Board should be constituted consisting of the representatives of the municipalities included in the area and the Commissioner of Police may be associated with them, and they should form the appellate authority whose decision should be final, or, in the alternative, a Court of Law.

There may be some other points on which I may have to speak in the Council, but it is not necessary to note them all here.

I would recommend that the opinion of public bodies on the new proposal which was not in the Bill as introduced in Council be invited.

NOTE OF DISSENT BY THE HON'BLE RAI MAHENDRA CHANDRA MITRA BAHADUR.

I AGREE to the modifications made by the Select Committee in the Hackney-carriage Bill, subject to the following note of dissent :—

Looking to the history of legislation, it appears that Bengal Act V of 1866 which was introduced by Mr. F. R. Cockrell in the Bengal Legislative Council was amended in 1878 by Mr. Reynolds. The Act of 1866 placed the Registering Officer and the administration of the law relating to hackney-carriages entirely under the control of the Commissioner of Police, Calcutta. The object of Mr. Reynolds' amending Act (Bengal Act IV of 1878) was to authorize the Local Government to place the Registering Officer under the control and supervision of the Corporation. Since then the Registering Officer and the administration of the Hackney-carriage Act have been transferred from the Commissioner of Police to the Corporation of Calcutta. Since 1878 the hackney-carriage service has been administered satisfactorily by a body of gentlemen elected by the rate-payers of Calcutta and appointed by Government.

As there are no adequate reasons for this transfer, I do not agree with the majority of the members of the Select Committee who consider that the control of the hackney-carriages should be transferred from the Corporation to the Commissioner of Police, Calcutta, and in my opinion alterations should not, therefore, be made in clauses 6, 4(3), 7, 17(2), 30(2), 60, 79 and 81.

(e) any other article of food which may be notified by the Local Government in this behalf, unless the following conditions are fulfilled, namely:—

(i) in the case of milk (other than condensed milk in hermetically closed receptacles), the animal from which the milk is derived shall be definitely stated in such manner as the local authority may, by general or special order, require, and the article sold, exposed for sale or stored for sale, as the case may be, shall be the natural secretion from the udder of such animal, from which no ingredient has been extracted and to which no water or other substance (including any preservative) has been added, and shall not contain a less proportion of non-fatty solids and of fat than such as the Local Government may prescribe;

(ii) in the case of butter, it shall be exclusively derived from milk or cream (other than condensed milk or cream), or both, with or without salt or other preservative, and with or without the addition of colouring matter, such preservative or colouring matter being of such a nature and in such quantity as not to render the article injurious to health, and shall not contain a greater proportion of water than may be prescribed by the Local Government in this behalf;

[Cf. 50 & 51 Vict., c. 29, s. 3 and 7 Edw. 7, c. 21, ss. 3 (b) and 4.]

(iii) in the case of ghee, it shall not contain any substance which is not derived exclusively from milk

(Chapter II.—General Provisions.—Clauses 7, 8.)

(iv) in the case of mustard oil, it shall be derived exclusively from mustard seed ; and

(v) in the case of any food notified by the Local Government under clause (e), it shall fulfil such conditions as may be prescribed by the Local Government in regard to such food.

(2) No person shall sell, expose for sale, or manufacture or store for sale any thing which is similar to any of the articles specified in clauses (a), (b), (c) and (d) of sub-section (1) or to any article notified by the Local Government under clause (e) of that sub-section, under a name which in any way resembles the name of such article.

[Cf. U. P. Act VI of 1912, s. 6(e).]

(3) In any prosecution under this section the person selling or exposing for sale any of the articles specified in clauses (a), (b), (c) and (d) of sub-section (1), or any article notified by the Local Government under clause (e) of that sub-section, shall not be deemed to have committed an offence, if he proves to the satisfaction of the Court before whom he is charged that the article was purchased by him as the same in nature, substance and quality as that demanded by the purchaser, and with a written warranty to the effect that it was of such nature, substance and quality.

(4) In any prosecution under this section it shall be no defence to allege that the vendor, manufacturer or storer was ignorant of the nature, substance or quality of the article sold, exposed for sale, or manufactured or stored for sale, by him.

(5) In any prosecution under this section the Court shall, unless and until the contrary is proved, presume that any of the articles specified in clauses (a), (b), (c) and (d) of sub-section (1) or any article notified by the Local Government under clause (e) of that sub-section found in the possession of a person who is in the habit of manufacturing or storing like articles for sale, has been manufactured or stored for sale by such person.

Use of warranty as defence.

[Cf. 62 & 63 Vict., c. 51, s. 20(1).]

7. The warranties referred to in clause (c) of the proviso to sub-section (1) of section 5 and sub-section (3) of section 6 shall not be available as a defence unless the vendor has, within seven days after service of the summons, sent to the purchaser a copy of the warranty with a written notice stating that he intends to rely thereon and specifying the name and address of the person from whom he received it.

Prohibition of adulterants in places where ghee, mustard oil, etc., are manufactured.

[Cf. Ben. Act III of 1899, s. 495B.]

8. (1) No person shall keep or permit to be kept in any factory, in which butter, ghee, mustard oil or any article notified by the Local Government under clause (e) of sub-section (1) of section 6 is manufactured, any substance intended to be used for the adulteration of such butter, ghee, mustard oil or other article.

(2) If any article capable of being so used is found in such factory, the Court shall, unless and until the contrary is proved, presume in any prosecution under this section that it is intended to be used for the purposes of adulteration.

(Chapter II.—General Provisions.—Clauses 9—11.)

Receptacles for separated or skimmed condensed milk to be marked.

9. No person shall sell or expose for sale any tin or other receptacle containing condensed milk which has been separated or skimmed, unless such tin or receptacle bears a label on which and on its wrapper (if any) it is clearly indicated, both in English and in Bengali, that the milk has been skimmed and is not suitable for feeding infants under one year of age.

[Hongkong Ordinance No. 20 of 1911 s. 2.]

Analysis of food.

Power of purchaser to have article of food analysed.

10. Any purchaser of an article of food shall be entitled, on payment of such fee as the Local Government may prescribe, to have such article analysed by the public analyst appointed for the area within which such article is purchased and to receive from him a certificate, in the form prescribed in the Schedule to this Act, of the result of his analysis.

[Cf. U. P Act VI of 1912, s. 7.]

Compulsory sale of food, etc., for purpose of analysis.

11. (1) Any person duly authorised by the Local Government or by any local authority empowered by the Local Government in this behalf, may require, on tendering the price for it, the sale to him during the process of manufacture, for the purpose of analysis, of such quantity of—

[Cf. Ben Act III of 1899, s. 507.]

(i) any food, or

(ii) any ingredients used in the manufacture of food,

as is reasonably requisite for division and disposal under section 12; and any person in possession of the said food or ingredients shall be bound to sell such quantity.

(2) Any person duly authorised by the Local Government or by any local authority empowered by the Local Government in this behalf, may also require the surrender to himself, for the purpose of analysis, of such quantity as is reasonably requisite for division and disposal under section 12, of any food which for the purpose of sale is—

(a) in course of transit in any local area, or

(b) stored in any place in the said local area;

and any person in possession of the said food shall be bound to surrender such quantity:

Provided that in every such case the price of the food so surrendered shall be payable from such fund as the Local Government may prescribe to the owner of the food, if claimed by such owner within one month from the date of the said surrender.

(3) Any person duly authorised by the Local Government or by any local authority empowered by the Local Government in this behalf, may also require, by tender of the price, the sale to him, for the purpose of analysis, of such quantity of any food exposed or intended for sale, as is reasonably requisite for division or disposal under section 12; and any person in possession of or exposing the same for sale shall be bound to sell such quantity.

(Chapter II.—General Provisions.—Clauses 12—14.)

Procedure for analysis of food.

12. (1) Any purchaser who wishes to have an article of food analysed under section 10, and any person who purchases, for the purpose of analysis, a sample of food under section 11, sub-section (1) or sub-section (3), shall, after the purchase has been completed, forthwith notify to the seller, or his agent selling the article, his intention to have the same analysed, and shall divide the article into three parts, to be then and there separated, and each part to be marked and sealed or fastened up in any manner which its nature will permit.

[Cf. U. P. Act VI of 1912, s. 9.]

(2) The person purchasing the article or sample shall deliver one of the said parts to the seller or his agent, and shall retain another part for future comparison, and shall send the remaining part to the public analyst appointed for the area where the article is sold.

(3) When any food is surrendered under section 11, sub-section (2), the person to whom it is surrendered shall forthwith notify to the person in charge of the said food his intention to have the same analysed, and shall thereupon deal with the food so surrendered in the manner provided in sub-sections (1) and (2).

[Cf. Ben. Act III of 1899, s. 507 (2).]

Inspection and seizure of food.

Power to seize food which is believed to be adulterated.

13. (1) Any person duly authorised in this behalf by rule made under this Act may, at any time by day or by night, inspect and examine any food which is being manufactured for sale, or is in course of transit or stored for sale, or is hawked about or exposed for sale, and any utensil or vessel used for preparing, manufacturing or containing any such food; and no person shall offer resistance to, or obstruct, any such inspection or examination.

(2) If the person so authorised has reason to believe any such food to be adulterated, he may seize and remove such food, utensil or vessel in order that the same may be dealt with in accordance with the provisions of section 14; and no person shall offer resistance to, or obstruct, any such seizure or removal.

(3) The person authorised as aforesaid may, instead of carrying away any food, utensil or vessel seized under sub-section (2), leave the same in such safe custody as he thinks fit in order that the same may be dealt with as provided in section 14; and no person shall remove such food, utensil or vessel from such custody or interfere or tamper with the same in any way while so detained.

(4) When any food is seized under sub-section (2), the person seizing it shall separate therefrom such quantity as is reasonably requisite for division and disposal for the purposes of this sub-section, and shall thereupon divide and dispose of such quantity in the manner provided in section 12, sub-sections (1) and (2).

Food, etc., seized under section 13 to be taken before Magistrate.

14. (1) Any food, utensil or vessel seized under section 13, sub-section (2), shall, subject to the provisions of sub-sections (3) and (4) of that section, be taken as soon as may be after such seizure, before a Magistrate.

[Cf. Ben. Act III of 1899, s. 505.]

(Chapter II.—General Provisions.— Clauses 15—18.)

(2) If it appears to the Magistrate that any such food is adulterated, or that any such utensil or vessel is used for preparing, manufacturing or containing the same, he shall cause the food, utensil or vessel to be forfeited to the local authority for the area in which the seizure has taken place, in order that it may be destroyed or otherwise disposed of by that authority, at the cost of the person in whose possession it was at the time of its seizure, and such cost shall be realized as if it were a fine imposed under this Act.

(3) If it appears to the Magistrate that any such food is not adulterated, or that any such utensil or vessel is not used for preparing, manufacturing or containing the same, the person from whose shop or place the food, utensil or vessel was taken shall be entitled to have it restored to him, and it shall be in the discretion of the Magistrate to award to such person from such fund as the Local Government may prescribe in this behalf, such compensation, not exceeding the actual loss which he has sustained, as the Magistrate may think proper.

Miscellaneous.

Duty of public analyst to supply certificate of analysis.

15. (1) Every public analyst to whom any article of food has been submitted for analysis under this Act, shall deliver to the person so submitting it a certificate in the form prescribed in the Schedule to this Act, specifying the result of his analysis, and shall send a copy of the same to the local authority concerned.

[Cf. U. P. Act VI of 1912, s. 11.]

(2) Any document purporting to be such certificate signed by a public analyst shall be sufficient evidence in any inquiry, trial or proceeding under this Act of the result of such analysis :

Provided that any Court before which a case may be pending under this Act, whether exercising original, appellate or revisional jurisdiction, may, in its discretion, at the request either of the accused or the complainant, cause any article of food to be sent for analysis to the Chemical Examiner to Government, who shall thereupon analyse the same and report the result of such analysis to the said Court; and the expense of such analysis shall be paid by the accused or the complainant as the Court may, by order, direct.

Cognizance of offences.

16. No prosecution for any offence under this Act shall be instituted without the order or consent in writing of the local authority within whose jurisdiction the offence is committed.

[Cf. U. P. Act VI of 1912, s. 12.]

Jurisdiction.

17. No Magistrate whose powers are less than those of a Magistrate of the second class shall try any offence under this Act.

[Cf. U. P. Act VI of 1912, s. 13.]

Limitation for prosecutions.

18. (1) No summons shall issue for the attendance of any person accused of an offence under this Act unless the same is applied for within thirty days from the date upon which the order or consent referred to in section 16, shall have been made or given.

[Cf. U. P. Act VI of 1912, s. 14.]

(Chapter II.—General Provisions.—Clauses 19, 20.)

(2) Every summons issued in a prosecution under this Act shall specify the particulars of the offence charged and the name of the complainant, and the date fixed for the hearing of the case shall not be less than seven days from the day on which the summons is served upon such person.

Fines, etc., how to be credited.

19. All fines realised under this Act in any local area to which all or any of the sections of this Act have been extended, and all other sums, if any, which the Local Government may direct to be utilized for the purposes of this Act, shall be credited—

(i) to the municipal fund, if the local area be within the limits of any municipality;

(ii) to the cantonment fund, if the local area be within the limits of any cantonment; or

(iii) to such fund as the Local Government may direct, in the case of any other local area.

Power of Local Government to make rules.

20. (1) The Local Government may, subject to the condition of previous publication, make rules to carry out the purposes of this Act.

[Cf. Ben. Act VI of 1914, s. 38.]

(2) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, the Local Government may make rules—

(a) determining what deficiencies in or additions to any article of food, the normal constituents of which have been declared under section 4, shall raise the presumption that the quality of such article has been reduced, lowered or injuriously affected;

(b) prescribing the proportion of non-fatty solids and of fat which must be contained in milk sold, exposed for sale or stored for sale;

(c) prescribing the maximum proportion of water which may be contained in butter sold, exposed for sale or stored for sale;

(d) prescribing the conditions to be fulfilled by any food notified by the Local Government under clause (e) of sub-section (1) of section 6;

(e) providing for the appointment by the Local Government, or by any local authority empowered by the Local Government in this behalf, of persons to perform the duties and to exercise the powers mentioned in section 11, or section 13;

(f) prescribing the fees to be charged by a public analyst for analysing articles of food under this Act; and

(g) prescribing the funds to which fines and other sums shall be credited under clause (iii) of section 19.

[2] Here insert the name of the person delivering the sample. If the sample is received by post or by railway, entry should be made accordingly.

[3] When the article cannot be conveniently weighed, this passage may be erased or the blank may be left unfilled.

[4] Here the analyst may insert, at his discretion, his opinion as to whether the mixture (if any) was for the purpose of rendering the article potable or palatable, or of preserving it, or of improving the appearance, or was unavoidable, and may state whether it was in excess of what is ordinary or otherwise, and whether the ingredients or materials mixed are or are not injurious to health.

NOTE.—In the case of a certificate regarding milk, butter or any article liable to decomposition, the analyst shall specially report whether any change had taken place in the constitution of the article that would interfere with the analysis.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

THE adulteration of food, particularly of articles of common consumption, such as milk, ghee, mustard-oil, etc., is extremely prevalent, and the existing law has entirely failed to check the evil. The present Bill has been framed for the purpose of remedying the defects in the law, which make this practice possible, and of ensuring the purity of the staple articles of food which are most liable to adulteration.

The Bill, which excludes Calcutta from its operation, provides for the fixing of a statutory standard of purity for various important articles of food. In the interests of the consumer the Bill is based on the general principle that a person who sells food must take the responsibility that the food is not adulterated; but protection is afforded to a vendor who sells an article which he purchased with a written warranty to the effect that it was the same in nature, substance and quality as that demanded by the purchaser. It prohibits the storing of adulterants in any factory where ghee, mustard-oil, etc., are manufactured, and powers are taken for the appointment of public analysts, for the compulsory sale to authorised persons of food for the purpose of analysis, and for the inspection and seizure of food which is believed to be adulterated. A private purchaser is also given power, under certain safeguards, to cause his purchases of food to be analysed. A certificate granted by a public analyst will be taken as sufficient evidence of the results of the analysis in a Court of Law.

The subjoined notes explain the more important clauses.

NOTES ON CLAUSES.

1. Clause 1.—Calcutta is excluded from the scope of the Bill as the Calcutta Municipal Bill contains special provisions dealing with the same subject. With this reservation the power of extension has been made as general as possible to meet the varying circumstances of the mufassal.

2. Clause 2.—The definition of the word "adulterated" is similar to that contained in Bengal Act I of 1917.

3. Clause 4.—Power is taken to the Local Government to declare the normal constituents of any article of food and to make rules to determine what variations from the normal will raise the presumption that the quality of the food has been reduced, lowered or injuriously affected.

4. Clause 5.—This clause, the basis of which is the offence of cheating, follows similar provisions in the United Provinces Prevention of Adulteration Act, 1912 (U. P. Act VI of 1912).

5. Clause 6.—It is proposed to enact more stringent provisions based on fixed standards in respect of certain important articles of food by means of this clause, which is mainly based on sections 415 and 417A of the City of Bombay Municipal Act, 1888 (Bom. Act III of 1888). The provisions have been made more stringent in the interests of the consumer on the principle that a person who sells food must himself take the responsibility that the food is not adulterated; but protection is given to a person who sells under a warranty.

The provision in this clause relating to butter is based on section 3 of the Margarine Act, 1887 (50 & 51 Vict., c. 29) and sections 1 (b) and 4 of the Butter and Margarine Act, 1907 (7 Edw. 7, c. 21).

6. Clause 7.—This clause, which is based on section 20 (1) of the Sale of Food and Drugs Act, 1899 (62 & 63 Vict., c. 51), is intended to prevent collusion between the vendor and the warrantor, by prescribing a time limit for the production of the warranty.

7. Clause 8.—This clause is based on section 495B of the Calcutta Municipal Act, 1899 (Ben. Act III of 1899). The operation of this clause has, however, been limited to factories.

8. Clause 9.—This clause has been inserted to ensure the labelling of tins of skimmed condensed milk in such a way as to warn the public that it is unsuitable for infants. The clause is based on Hongkong Ordinance No. 20 of 1911.

9. Clause 10.—This clause is based on section 7 of the United Provinces Prevention of Adulteration Act, 1912 (U. P. Act VI of 1912).

10. Clause 11.—This clause is based on section 507 of the Calcutta Municipal Act, 1899 (Ben. Act III of 1899), and provides for the compulsory sale or surrender for the purposes of analysis of food during the processes of manufacture, transit and storage.

11. Clause 12.—This clause is based on section 9 of the United Provinces Prevention of Adulteration Act, 1912 (U. P. Act VI of 1912), but differs from that section inasmuch as it makes division into three parts compulsory, following the English Law on the subject.

12. Clause 13.—This clause is based on section 503 of the Calcutta Municipal Act, 1899. Provision is made for safeguarding the position of the owner of food seized, by compulsory analysis of the food.

13. Clause 14.—This clause is based on section 505 of the Calcutta Municipal Act, 1899.

14. Clauses 15, 16, 17 and 18 follow similar provisions in the United Provinces Prevention of Adulteration Act, 1912 (U. P. Act VI of 1912).

15. Clause 19 provides for the credit of monies to be realized under this Bill.

16. Clause 21.— The penalties proposed under this Bill follow those enacted in the Calcutta Municipal (Amendment) Act, 1917 (Ben. Act I of 1917).

Clause 2.—We consider that the scope of the Bill should be extended so as to apply to tobacco and smoking mixtures generally. We have, therefore, inserted a definition of "tobacco" on the lines of that in section 2 of the Punjab Act VII of 1918.

We have retained the definition of "cigarettes" in sub-clause (a) of clause 2 for the purposes of the proviso which we have added to clause 3(1).

The definition of "teacher" in clause 2 of the Bill has been omitted in view of the alterations which we have made in clause 4.

Clauses 3 and 4.—We have reduced the age limit for persons to be dealt with under the Bill from 21 to 16 in both these clauses, as we consider 21 to be too high.

Clause 3 (1), new proviso.—This new proviso is based on section 43(2) of the Children Act, 1908 (8 Edw. 7, c. 67), and has been inserted in the Bill in order to give protection to a person selling tobacco other than "cigarettes", as defined in the Bill (which include cigars and biris), to a person apparently under the age of 16 years, if he did not know, and had no reason to believe, that the tobacco was for the use of the purchaser.

Clause 4.—We have confined the power of seizure under this clause to police-officers in uniform and any other person or class of persons duly authorised by the Local Government in this behalf.

We have altered the latter part of clause 4 so as to authorise the destruction of any articles seized under the clause. This follows section 4 of the Punjab Act VII of 1918.

New clause 4A.—We consider it desirable that a clear provision should be made as to the person who should have the power of initiating proceedings.

We recommend that the Bill, as now amended by us, be passed.

CALCUTTA;
The 12th November, 1918.

* This member signed subject to his Note of Dissent appended.

NOTE OF DISSENT BY THE HON'BLE DR. ABDULLA-AL-MAMUN SUHRAWARDY.

I AM of opinion that in the definition of "police-officer" the words "and includes a constable" should be omitted and the words "above the rank of a head constable" should be substituted for them.

NOTE OF DISSENT BY THE HON'BLE SIR DEBA PRASAD SARBADHIKARI.

When the Bill was referred to the Select Committee, the Government, through the Hon'ble the Maharajadhiraja Bahadur of Burdwan, indicated the points which would be pressed before the Committee on behalf of the Government :—

(1) The age limit of 21 is prima facie too high and should be reduced to 15.

(2) Provisions similar to those contained in sub-sections (2) and (3) of section 43 of the English Children Act, 1908, should be inserted in the Bill. In other words, Government consider that the provisions of the Bill about cigarettes should also apply to tobacco and smoking mixtures, with the exception recognized in England that a person shall not be guilty of an offence for selling them to a person apparently under the age of 16 years, if he does not know and has no reason to believe that it is for his personal use. The Bill, as it stands, guards against the sale of cigars, cigarettes, biris, pipes, or cigarette papers, but not against the sale of tobacco other than cigarettes. There is a similar omission as regards the power of seizure. Government are of opinion that in this matter the English law should be followed if the Council decides that legislation is necessary.

(3) The power to seize cigars, etc., referred to in clause 4 should be expressly confined to police-officers (including constables) in uniform. Power should, at the same time, be taken to authorise any other person to exercise the right of seizure. The object of this latter provision is to leave Government free to decide as to the class of officers or persons on whom this duty may be suitably imposed, and, lastly,—there should be a clear provision as to the person who should have the power of initiating proceedings.

It will be seen from the revised Bill and the Report of the Select Committee that all these points have been now provided in the Bill on the lines indicated by the Government. Their good will towards and support of the Bill may therefore be now well bespoken. This is of the utmost importance if the provisions of the Bill are to have a fair trial and if they are not to be wrecked from the beginning. Though on some of the points indicated above some of us did not quite see eye to eye with the Government it was felt that in the interest of the measure such difference of opinion should be sunk and a working compromise should be effected as the first step towards a much needed and beneficial reform.

There is one point, however, about which I have great hesitation and I feel it my duty to press the objection. I press it in the interest of the object we all have in view and I feel that if this objection is not removed the Act will be worse than useless and will give rise to annoyance and irritation that will wholly baffle the object in view.

I, therefore, propose that the definition of "police-officer" be amended by substituting the words "above the rank of a head constable" in the place of the words "and includes a constable" in clause 2 (b).

In pressing for this substitution I know we are having for the present fewer agents for giving effect to the provisions of the law. But in a place like Calcutta. police-officers of and above the rank of Sub-Inspectors and other special agents that the Government have been authorised to depute will be able to make a good beginning.

Public criticism is strong against the employment of the police at all and the least we can do for the present is to confer the powers on officers not below the rank of Sub-Inspectors.

NOTE OF DISSENT BY THE HON'BLE DR. ABDULLA-AL-MAMUN SUHRAWARDY.

I AM of opinion that in the definition of "police-officer" the words "and includes a constable" should be omitted and the words "above the rank of a head constable" should be substituted for them.

NOTE OF DISSENT BY THE HON'BLE SIR DEBA PRASAD SARBADHIKARI.

When the Bill was referred to the Select Committee, the Government, through the Hon'ble the Maharajadhiraja Bahadur of Burdwan, indicated the points which would be pressed before the Committee on behalf of the Government :—

(1) The age limit of 21 is prima facie too high and should be reduced to 15.

(2) Provisions similar to those contained in sub-sections (2) and (3) of section 43 of the English Children Act, 1908, should be inserted in the Bill. In other words, Government consider that the provisions of the Bill about cigarettes should also apply to tobacco and smoking mixtures, with the exception recognized in England that a person shall not be guilty of an offence for selling them to a person apparently under the age of 16 years, if he does not know and has no reason to believe that it is for his personal use. Clause 2.

2. We have made it clear that the reference in clause (a) of the proposed new sub-section (2) of section 74 of the Bengal Tenancy Act, 1885, is to clause (2) of section 41 of the Cess Act, 1880.

3. In order to meet the objections which have been raised as to the effect of the Bill as introduced on existing written agreements to pay cess in excess of the provisions of the Cess Act, it has been considered desirable to save existing written contracts; and a new proviso to this effect has been inserted in the proposed new sub-section (2). The existing proviso barring the recovery of excess cess will remain as a second proviso.

4. As section 179 of the Bengal Tenancy Act already protects permanent mukarrari lease-holders in any contract which they make with their tenants on the subject of cess, it was not considered necessary to make in the original draft of the Bill any reference to such cases. As, however, it has been pointed out that there should be a similar protection in the cases of leases executed before the passing of the Bengal Tenancy Act, we recommend that there should be a general saving provision dealing with mukarrari leases; and a provision for this purpose has been inserted as a proposed new sub-section (3) in section 74 of the Bengal Tenancy Act.

Clause 3.

5. The amendment here proposed is simply consequential.

6. We recommend that the Bill as thus amended be passed.

By the Hon'ble BABU AMBIKA CHARAN MAZUMDAR :—

* 1.

Raising the tuition fee of the Dacca College.

(a) Will the Government be pleased to state whether it is a fact that the governing body of the Dacca College has submitted a proposal for raising the tuition fee of the students of that college from Rs. 6 to Rs. 9 a month?

(b) What is the approximate total number of students in the Dacca College and whát proportion of them belongs to the so-called "well-to-do classes" for whom the Dacca University Committee proposed to establish a separate college in that city?

Answer by the Hon'ble MR. O'MALLEY :—

"(a) Yes.

(b) The number of students on the rolls is approximately 900. Government have no information as to the incomes of the parents and guardians of the students and are unable to say how many of the students would come under the category of 'well-to-do classes.'"

* 2.

High prices of cloth.

(a) Are the Government aware that the prices of cloth have gone up abnormally high and that they are still on the increase?

(b) Are the Government also aware that this rise is causing great hardship, particularly among the middle and the lower classes of the people?

(c) Is it in the immediate contemplation of Government to take steps to put a stop to this inflation in the prices of cloth?

Answer by the Hon'ble MR. KERR :—

"(a) Yes.

(b) Yes.

(c) The matter will be discussed at to-day's meeting of the Legislative Council in connection with the relevant resolutions on the agenda paper."

(b) Is it a fact that he was promoted over the heads of several senior lecturers in English, not only of much higher grades and longer standing but of equal or even higher attainments?
